Dear Eric:

Enclosed is the inventory of U. S. coins that is held by our affiliate, Mercantile Bank and Trust Company, Kansas City, Missouri. The McIntire Numismatic Auctions, Inc. has made an appraisal and is asking to handle this portfolio. Material on that organization is enclosed with the inventory.

If you could look over this material and call me, I would appreciate it.

Most sincerely,

Harry N. Schweppe, Jr.

THE COMPANY

THE COMPANY

McIntire Numismatic Auctions was formed in February, 1981.

We established as our goals: to provide the collector and investor with (1) consistent, high quality, auction services; (2) accurate, conservative, grading; and (3) to provide these services at the lowest possible cost.

As we were studying the auction business, prior to our entry into the business, we felt there was a specific need that was not being met by the firms then offering auction services.

Collectors and investors needed a reliable auction house. With the coin market boom of 1978-80, there were many entries to the auction field, many departures and many dissatisfied customers.

Collectors and investors needed to be assured of accurate, conservative grading. During the boom, industry grading standards had become embarrassingly lax.

With the rapidly escalating values of numismatic material during 1978-80, there was and is a need for an auction company which would spend the time and effort to organize a sale that contained numismatic material for all budgets. Most auction companies would accept only the highest priced pieces for auction and forgot the hobby is egalitarian by nature. To this day nearly all of our competitors place per lot minimums on the material they accept for auction. McIntire Numismatic Auctions is one of the few who will accept complete collections for auction.

Coin clubs and numismatic societies need an auction firm willing and able to stage a first rate, high quality auction in conjunction with their major, regional conventions and shows. The existing firms no longer felt the need to assist the backbone of the hobby, the clubs, and work with them to strengthen their conventions with an auction. McIntire Numismatic Auctions prefers to hold its auctions in conjunction with a major numismatic convention. Quite simply, the convention helps us reach more potential buyers and we help attendance at the convention.

Consignors also need a firm like McIntire Numismatic Auctions. From mid-1980 to early 1983, the market was experiencing a significant price correction. This downward phase of the coin market cycle was expected and is normal. During such a phase however, consignors needed our high standards. Our consistent, accurate grading minimizes returns. For example, from our 1983 Missouri Numismatic Society sale, we had just 13 items out of 1706 lots returned, or approximately three-fourths of one percent. That, we believe, is an industry record.

Consignors also deserve and get a descriptive catalog - not just a listing of items for sale.

And, consignors need and get financial reliability. We punctually settle our accounts within 35 days from the date of the sale. That is the fastest in the industry. Add to fast settlement our lowest in the industry commission rates, and you get McIntire Numismatic Auctions, truly the best deal in numismatics.

THE PRINCIPALS

McIntire Numismatic Auctions is an incorporated business. The only stockholders are Robert T. 'Mack' McIntire, Gary L. Burhop and Alfred E. Johnbrier.

Robert T. McIntire

Mack is President of McIntire Numismatic Auctions. He is a retired 21 year veteran of the U. S. Air Force.

Mack began collecting coins in 1961 and by the mid-1960's had built a mail order coin business, specializing in coins of the world, as a second business. In 1971 he opened a coin shop in Jacksonville, Arkansas, a Little Rock suburb. He is an active, full-time professional numismatist and a familiar face on the coin show circuit.

Long active in coin club affairs, he is the past president of three clubs, a founder of the Jacksonville, AR coin club and a District Representative for The American Numismatic Association. He holds life membership in The American Numismatic Association, the Arkansas Numismatic Society, Central States Numismatic Society, Garden State (NJ) Numismatic Society, and Great Eastern Numismatic Society. He is a member of the Missouri Numismatic Society and Florida United Numismatists. He is the long time editor of and frequent contributing author to the ARKOIN News, the quarterly publication of the Arkansas Numismatic Society.

He is a pricing contributor to the annually produced Red Book and the Blue Book, both published by Whitman Publishing Company. He is also a contributor for Krause Publications' Coin Market, Coin Prices magazine, Numismatic News and the Standard Catalog of World Coins.

Alfred E. Johnbrier

Al also entered full time professional numismatics after a 22 year career with the U. S. Air Force. He began collecting in 1962 and in 1964 began to develop a part-time dealership. Since 1965 he has had bourse tables at more than 385 coin shows. In addition, since 1966 he has organized and produced more than 400 auctions for the Andrews Air Force Base Coin Club.

Al is an life member of The American Numismatic Association; Florida United Numismatists, and Central States Numismatic Society. He has served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Andrews Air Force Base Coin Club from 1966 - 1970 and from 1972 to the present. He also holds memberships in a number of other state numismatic associations across the country.

Over the years Al Johnbrier has become a recognized expert in the field of U. S. silver dollars. He frequently presents educational programs about his specialty to coin clubs and at coin conventions. He is a contributor to Numismatic News' Coin Market. His expertise has been called upon by most authors of books and articles dealing with silver dollars written in the last five years. In the 1984 edition of Silver Dollar Fortune Telling by Les and Sue Fox, Al is featured in a roundtable discussion on dollars involving noted investment counselor James Blanchard, author Les Fox, and himself.

He is a founder and present Treasurer of the National Silver Dollar Roundtable.

Gary L. Burhop

Gary, like the other principals in McIntire Numismatic Auctions is an active, long time numismatist. His collecting began in 1961. By 1967, his senior year in high school, he had become an active investor/collector, had organized and served as first President of a local coin club and begun a lifelong study of numismatics.

He is a Life Member of The American Numismatic Association and Central State Numismatic Society. He is Charter Number 23 of The International Numismatic Society. In addition he belongs to the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association and the Arkansas Numismatic Society. In 1977, he was chosen by the Director of the Mint to serve on the Annual Assay Commission, although President Carter ultimately decided against appointing public members in that year.

He has authored several articles on numismatic investments and monographs on individual rarities. He is presently attempting to catalog official Presidential Nominating Convention badges.

For the auction company, Gary performs the research and cataloging functions. This meshes well with his position of Assistant to the President of Malone & Hyde, Inc. a Memphis based NYSE traded company. Prior to joining Malone & Hyde in 1977, he was Executive Assistant to then - Senator William E. Brock.

PERFORMANCE

Although McIntire Numismatic Auctions appears a relative newcomer to the numismatic auction business, our auction experience reaches far beyond the five sales we have held under the MNA banner. Al Johnbrier began organizing and conducting the auctions for the Andrews Air Force Base Coin Club in 1966 and continues to hold these 300-plus lot auctions twice monthly. Mack McIntire offered mail bid sales as early as the mid 1960's. And Gary Burhop, whose extensive collection of more than 500 numismatic auction catalogs compliments our firm's library, has bid in more than 200 numismatic auctions since 1973.

When McIntire Numismatic Auctions began, we purposely started in a restrained, measured manner. We did not want to promise more than we could deliver, and we did not want to succumb to that small business nemesis - growing too rapidly.

In our inaugural year, 1981, we conducted one sale. The second year we held two sales. This year we have conducted two and have our third scheduled for October 21-22 in suburban Washington, D.C. in conjunction with MANA, the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association. In 1984 we have four sales under contract, including the auction for the Central States Numismatic Society. Historically, CSNS or Central States as it is called, is the second or third largest numismatic convention in the nation. The CSNS auction is equally prestigious. We anticipate the Central States sale will be our largest to date. It is here we purpose to headline the King Estate collection.

Here is our track record:

July 1981	Arkansas Numismatic Society
January 1982	Greater Houston MONEY Show
August 1982	Missouri Numismatic Society
January 1983	Greater Houston MONEY Show
August 1983	Missouri Numismatic Society
October 1983	Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association (MANA)

This is our future:

January 1984	Greater Houston MONEY Show
April 1984	Central States Numismatic Society
July 1984	Metropolitan Washington (D.C.) Numismatic Association
October 1984	Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association (MANA)
January 1985	Numismatic Association of Southern California (NASCA)
April 1985	Central States Numismatic Society
July 1985	Metropolitan Washington D.C. Numismatic

Our performance has been steady. We have delivered the best deal in numismatics. Our commitment to the future is there. We continue to be asked by numismatic organizations to hold more sales than we possibly can produce.

To date our growth has been financed entirely from within.

We are extremely cost conscious. That is good for the consignor - it keeps commission rates down - and for us.

We are lean. We have two full-time and two part-time employees.

We are committed to excellence in every phase of our operation and are currently installing our own computer system using IBM-PC and IBM-XT equipment. This will greatly increase our productivity by simplifying the catalog preparation and allowing the electronic transmission of the text directly to the typesetter. The system will also streamline our accounting and other office functions.

We plan to continue to offer the best service at the most competitive rates in numismatics. Our success depends on it.
